DYERSBURG, TENN.

MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Of the Tenth Chancery District-Their Time Saved by the Withdrawal of Judge Livingston.

IMPECIAL TO THE APPEAL. Dyershuse, Tesn., July 29.—Pursuant to a call of the Democratic State Executive Committee for a Convention of the County Executive Com mittee and the a torneys of the Tenth Chancery Division to meet at Rives today, quite a number of our attor-neys and citizens went to Rives last night, and on reaching that place found that Judge Livingston had withdrawn from the race for Chancellor, leaving Judge Somers, the worthy, pure and guileless old man to carry the Democratic banner to victory on the 5th of August. So there was nothing left for the committee to do, and most of our delegates returned this morning. The action of Judge Livingston in withdrawing from the race in favor of his opponent, Judge Somers, at this late hour, after he has spent his time and money in making the canvass, will commend itself to the Democratic party as an act of devot on to party, commensurate with the avowals made by Judge Livingston in his speech before the committee at Rives on Friday, the 23d instant, and it is no less a matter of regret to the friends of Judge Somers than to the friends of Judge Livingston that a combination of untoward circumstances (the coming out of a Republican candidate) made it necessary that one of the Demo-

W. G. Dyer, a prominent candidate for Sheriff of our county, published a card yesterday branding as false and slanderous a report being circulated throughout the county to the effect that he "started to take a borrowed horse to Arkansas" about two years ago. Mr. Dyer published certified copies of the judgment rendered in the replevin suit about the horse, which show conclusively that the re-port is untrue. Some of the best citizens of our county who have known Mr. Dyer intimately for sixteen years publish in the card above alluded to that he is a strictly reliable gentleman and in every way worthy of the peo-ple's confidence, and your correspondent's knowledge of the man warrants a hearty indorsement of the good cratic candidates should withdraw and name given him. It is thought that our countryman, S. L. Cockroft, will enter the convention at Memphis next Saturday with as much or more positive strength for the nomination for Attorney General than either of his opponents—Young, of Covington, or Coates, of Bolivar.

I A Card From Judge Livingston. To the Voters of the Tenth Chancery Di-vision:

Judge Somers, of Dresden, and myrival candidates for the Chancellorship of this Division-both Democrats -have been confronted within the pas few days with a Republican candidate for the same office, in the per-son of Mr. John R. Walker, of Trenton. The race is thus made to assume a political aspect, and the Democratic majority in the division being only about 2500 at the last election, there is imminent danger of Democratic defeat in case Judge Somers and myself both remain candidates.

The Democratic Executive Committee of the division met last Friday at Rives, with a view to such measures as would retire one or the other of the Democratic candidates. After a protracted session this committee adjourned sine die, without accomplishing anything. Another meeting has been called by Messrs. C. M. Ewing and C. A. Miller, members of the Democratic State Executive Committee, to meet on Thursday next at Rives, Tenn., and to be composed of the Democratic Executive Committee and Democratic lawyers of the several counties of the division, to nominate a Democratic candidate for Chancellor. This meeting is not sanctioned by Democratic urage, is not called by proper authority, would be wholly impracticable if it were authorized, and, of course, will not give satisfaction to the party. Hence we can expect nothing from this source.

have within the past two days faithfully and earnestly endeavored, by private nego lations with Judge Somers and myself and our respective friends, to fairly and equitably decide he matter between us so as to leave but one of us in the field. These neget ations have failed, and there is no probability that any further action will be taken, either by the party or by private negotiation, which will satisfactorily adjust the differences. What then snall be done? Shall we both continue in the race? If so, probable defeat awaits us both. The time is short, as the election occurs on the 5th of August. Many of my friends stren-nously insist that there is a reasonable hope of my election with all the can-didates in the field, and protest that I shall continue in the race until the election closes. But, notwithstanding these earnes; appeals and the ob ligations incurred by reason of the warm and unwavering support given me during the contest, yet, as I have always been a Democrat and devoted to the principles of my party, I am un-willing now to stand in the way of its success, and risk even its possible de-feat. I recognize the fact that my personal aspirations should be subor dinated to the principles of Democracy and that its success in the coming election should not be jeopardized by ndividual interes s To the end, therefore, that these principles may tri-umph and Democratic harmony and success be assured, I now withdraw as a candidate for the Chancellorship. I trust that this action of mine will remove all difficulty out of the way of To my hosts of triends throughout the division, who have stood by me so nobly and faithfully during my can-vase, I return my most sincere and hearifelt thanks. Their ardent friendship and valient service will ever link them to me as with "looks of steel." My advice to them is to ignore any personal animosities that may have been engendered by the contest between Judge Somers and myself and disregarding all the malicious thrusts and slanders from whatever quarter they may come. Stand firmly by the Democratic party, and on no account hgzard its success. Judge Somers is pointed Secognized as a Democrat, and true cumbent.

Democrats will be expected to give him their support in the coming elec-tion.

HEARTY INDORSEMENT OF THE TICKET

Nominated by the Democrats of Shelby County-A Word or Twe for Snodgrass.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE APPEAL. BEAUFORT, N. C., July 26 -I see by the papers that the skirmish line is withdrawn and the fight well begun, and I am more truly sorry than any candidate that my health prevents me from participating in it. As we used to say, "God defends the right," but then as now, much of success lies in numbers and superiority of material. As to the latter, beginning with the name of Ellett (who needs no word name of Edett (who needs no word from me) and going down the entire line, I cannot see how any man who loves the people can challenge the recent nominations by the Democratic party, and as the people make the country, I do hope that business will be entirely suspended on the 5th of August, and that employers and employer will use all proper appliployes will use all proper appli-ances in electing the nominees. With Judge Ellett as Chancellor and Dubose and Peters Judge of Criminal Court and Attorney General, life and property will be safe, and all the good people can lie down in peace and security for eight years. Speaking of Dubose and Peters, I am utterly as-tonished that any question is made as to whether they will properly and fully execute their offices. The ides that some entertain that the Judge shall follow the letter of the law and place their claims before a convention, the Attorney General establish a strict espionage upon all citizens is simply absurd. The letter would visit equal by Judge Livingston in taking such a punishment upon the assassin who presents the pistol as on the citizen de-fending with one. Espionage is the > citizen and want no office.

> I desire to say something about Mr. Snodgrass. The passing opposition from East Tennessee in the nominating convention arose from the fact that The passing opposition certain older residents of that section had, ever since the death of Judge McFarland, been looking for his place, while Snodgrass, a recent immigrant from upper Middle Tennessee, and perhaps not thinking of the position, had made no effort until recently, and had made no effort until recently, and hence the charge that he was not a bonafide resident, but moved to Chattanooga for the purpose of running. Judge McFariand died since the change of residence. No one questions Mr. Snodgrass's ability, and young as he is, he has made a record throughout the State as a man of the people—as true as a teal to his convictions and the true as steel to his convictions and the right and with the nerve to assert them. These are the character-Memphis, staggering under the seven wees, was trying to get on her feet, and with that sympathy and humanity which made him an idol where he was reared, he volunteered his assistance, and to his influence and exertions we owe a debt which Shelby county can well repay in part by casting her solid vote for him, and I think she will do it. I like a rue, sunare man (so does every one, Isuppose), and when I vote for sucn I feel that I have done myself

A BIG SCHEME.

Movement to Unite All the Street Railways of St. Louis.

Sr. Louis, Mo., July 29.—A move-ment to unite all the street railway companies in the city into one, to be under one management with a Trust Board at the head of affairs, is on foot. The plan is said to have been suggested as one of mutual protection against excessive competition and a resulting cut of fares, the directors of ome of the older companies believing that a remunerative business could be carried on by reducing the fare from five to three cents. The contemplated cut by these roads alarmed the others and a plan of consolidation was proposed. A committee has been ap pointed to ascertain if such a scheme is practicable, and they agreed to report, it is believed, favorably. Mr. S. H. Terry, of Chicago, inventor of the new grip and cable system, was before the committee last night at the latter's invitation, and explained to them the merits of his system, which makes possible a cable line twenty miles long of four systems, operated by one plant. It satisfactory arrangements can be made by the committee for the purchase of the patent, and if the consolidation can be brought about, horse power will be done away with and every street car in the city will be moved by cable.

The Epidemic of Fever at West Elizabeth, Pa.

PITTEBURG, PA., July 29.—There were three deaths yesterday from the fever at West Elizabeth and one new case. The condition of many of the patients now under medical treatment s such that more deaths are expected. There is a growing impress on that the epidemic has not yet reached its limits, and as the physicians experience great difficulty in satisfactorily diagnesing the disease, there is considerable difference of opinion among them as to the proper treatment. This has had a tendency to increase the alarm among the people, and the borough authorities are exerting themselves in every way to enforce sanitary measures and to officially carry out the suggestions that representatives of the State Board of Health have made in parsuance of investigations made by anthority.

Secretary Manning's Condition. Athany, N. Y., July 29.—Secretary Manning, accompanied by his son Fred, Fire Commissioner Uline and a valet, left by the 10 o'clock train this morning for Watch Hill. Although Secretary Manning walked more evenly today and with a less halting movement than when he arrived in Albany, he has apparently lost strength. He did not use a cane in walking from the depot to the drawing room ear, a distance of about seventy His right hand rested on Mrs. Manning's arm. Those who saw him remarked upon his feeble appearance. His face was pale. He chatted pleas-antly with friends before leaving the depot, but did not appear cheerful. Mr. James H. Manning, managing editor of the Argus, thinks his father is feeling much better than when he arrived in Albany.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy,

Scrofula, which produced a painful inscrottila, which produced a painted in fammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely
